IRELAND AND THE SOUTH.

THE BOYS IN GREEN TO THE BOYS IN GRAY.

AIR—The Wearing of the Green.

Ring it out from every steeple,
Call the clans from every fold,
We're a democratic people,
And our faith we mean to hold;
We're for mercy to the beaten foe,
For brothers we have been;
And what Oppression is we know,
All we who wear the Green—
Aye! what Oppression is we know,
All we who wear the Green—
In our very bones what it is we know,
We boys who wear the Green!

We have felt it in our Sireland,
With its whip our backs are scored;
Of the South we'll make no Ireland,
Scourged with famine and the sword;
'Tis true they tried the rebel game,
But punished they have been—
And I rather think we've done the same,
All we who wear the Green!
We ourselves have done the very same,
All we who wear the Green;
And we hope again to do the same,
We boys who wear the Green!

O, Manhood's proudest duty
Is to fight for Manhood's faith;
And true courage has a beauty
That not even crime can scathe;
In chaos they plunged headward, boys,
Their guilt we do not screen;
But our Emmet and Lord Edward, boys,
Did likewise for the Green!
Aye! Sheares and Orr and Edward, boys,
Were Rebels for the Green!
Wolf, Tone, and Bond, and Edward, boys,
Did likewise wear the Green!

So "Mercy" be the countersign,
And "Freedom" the parole—
Let the bugles ring along our line
And the drums for battle roll!
And the cry shall swell from every mouth,
And on our flags be seen—
We're for mercy to the Rebel South,
We Rebels of the Green—
We've a fellow feeling for the South,
We Rebels of the Green,
The boys who wore the Gray down South,
We boys who wore the Green!

MILES O'REILLY.

MY EXPERIENCE AT A NEW ENGLAND SEWING CIRCLE.

The Christian ladies of this congregation are invited to meet Thursday evening, at the residence of Mr. Sniveller, to form a Sewing Society. A full attendance is requested.

Such, my dear hearers, reads a notice I find on my sacred desk this morning, and I read it in hopes you will profit thereby.

We will now sing Psalm 131, first two stanzas—

My heart not haughty is, O Lord,
Mine eyes not lofty be;
Nor do I deal in matters great;
Or things too high for me!

I surely have myself behaved
With meek spirit and mild
As chi'd of mother weaned, my soul
Is like a weaned child.

All sing!

says I, "ouily!" Not in a bully spirit but with a sort of puritanical meaning, and concluded to go. Mrs. Sniveller—Mrs. Deacon Sniveller—lived in a large, white house, in a stone patch under the hill, down by her husband's button shop. Mrs. Sniveller was a leading horse, so called, in the team of benevolence at Buttonville. She had a little peaked red nose, about right to open clams with; a nervous jerk to her head, spiral enticers, and a water-fall, the size of a plum pudding, but filled with more ingredients. Deacon Sniveller passed the plate Sabbaths and took the funds home to count. Mr. Sniveller always gave with liberality on the next Sunday!

I wanted to go. I borrowed hoop skirts, waterfall and etceteras. I puffed my front hair, slung my waterfall on my bump of obstinacy, hoisted an onion into the ridicule I carried on my left arm, shouldered a cotton umbrella, took a piece of red flannel to make a shirt for some little innocent bud on the tree of Abolitionism, and sailed forth as the Yankee struck two.

Mrs. Sniviller was in. The front parlor and the middle was full of noble women, while the best bed room was full of bonnets, green umbrellas and retscules, in which to carry home sweet cakes, tarts, biscuit, plum bits, apple cores, and little things slyly slipped from Mr. Sniviller's table.

Mrs. Sniviller didn't know me. I told her I was little Sally Squiggles, as what lived there ten years afore, and had been South teachin skule!

"Lordy massy, so it is! Why, how natural you do look, now it all comes to me again! Bless me! Let me kiss my dear Sally who has escaped from the wretches!"—And angelic Mrs. Sniviller came near putting my eye hors du combat with the end of her nose!

I was introduced. Nineteen women were glad to see me and kissed their dear little Sally, till my waterfall got skrewed clear round under my left ear and I began to feel a rising sensation in my throat from the hugging then and there given, or words to that effect.

After I had been so affectionately gone through, I went into the bed room to reconstruct. Gracious! My waterfall had got under my left ear, making me look as if some ugly man of sin had lifted me one with brass knuckles and forgot to take it home with him, while my beautiful front hair resembled a garden full of pea vines after a hurricane. But I retained my composure and went out and became the centre of attraction.

"My dear Sally!"

"Precious Sally!"

"Little Sally Squiggles, sure enough!"

"So glad you cum hum!"

"Neow dew tell us all about it!"

Mrs. Sniviller was made chairwoman, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That this shall be called the Buttonville Benevolent Baby Association.

Resolved, That Mrs. Sniviller be, and hereby are, our President.

Resolved, That our aim is to help the downtrodden and bed ridded daughters of Ham, now in the clutches of that vile people, and to this end every member of the B. B. B., make one little flannel shirt a week, and Sally Squiggles shall tell us the size.

Resolved, That we open and close our Society with prayer.

Resolved, That each one of the members invite some man to go home with her at night. [Here I was about to object for fear of exposure, but for fear of exposure I didn't object.—Sally.]

After the Society was organized I was kept so busy answering questions that I came near not finishing the baby envelope I was working on, and should not, had I not taken long stitches as people do in Benevolent sewing.

Mrs. Sniviller said:

"Neow, Sally, ain't that ere Southern people the hatefulest, proud people the world ever did see? Cousin John, who went down as a sutler, brought home two trunks of the proudest silks, laces, jewelry that was real gold, and set with purty stones that was real diamonds, and worth a power of money. He found them in bureaus, trunks, closets and such places. The sneaking coward men had gone off to kill our good people, and the women were at work in the hospitals and all John had to do was to whip a lot of little children and help himself! I know them ere folks are a wicked, mean, ongrateful set, and ought to be killed."

Mrs. Puritan wanted to know if it was true that the people of the South actually cooked biled dinners on Sunday? If they did, she really hoped her cousin in Congress would pass a law that whenever a man in the South cooked a biled dinner on Sunday, he should be hung before dinner and his biled dinner sent North!

Mrs. Pinchback hoped the war would continner to go on till there was no more end of nothing. For her part, it was all stuff about the people suffering during the war. Her Josiah had a contract and made two hundred thousand dollars the first year, and when her brother, Rev. Pecknose Ranter, came back from the war where he had periled his precious life eating preserves so they would not hurt sick soldiers, he brought home more than fifty gold watches and the nicest gold clasp bible, which was now used every Sunday in one of the Buttonville churches.

Mrs. Squeak said the people of the South were nothing but murderers, for when her brother, Col. Zebra H. [illegible] was out in a field, doin nothin, killin nobody but just seein how much cotton an army team could drag, so he could tell if it was a good team, some cowardly gorilla shot a hole clear through him, and wouldn't even send his clothes home for Jedidiah to wear out! and she hoped if another war ever did come, some of them sinful men of the West would go down and do it up for 'em agin, not as she cared so much for her brother, but she wanted them ere clothes for her Jedediah.

Mrs. Cockeye said she hoped there would be a hull passel of wars, for her cousin, her dear good cousin Benjamin (the Beast) had made lots of money in the late war, and had supplied nearly all her relations with spoons, watches silver ware, &c., and said it was right the war should go on, for her cousin was safer in the war than afore a court of justice even, and said it was a Christian duty to let all Christian wars be continnered as long as there was anybody to continner 'em.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again—

"Well, I don't care no how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich. And they had nice things. And we believe that a nigger baby is of more account than a white pauper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more bones to make buttons of. He'll sell the buttons to the South and West, and they will have to pay us New England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

By this time tea was ready. We had a good tea. Such curious silver ware, old style, pure silver didn't taste brassy a bit, and all of us ladies tasted all the silver dishes to see! And such a lot of spoons! Each one of us had at our plate a spoon with our initials on. Mrs. Sniviller had a barrel of silver spoons, and hunted them over till she found our regular initials in regular order. Oh, it was so nice! And we piled all the shirts up in a chair, and put a bible rescued from the wicked South on the top of the pile, and then Rev. Mr. Slammer came up and made a prayer, and Mrs. Dawdler on a nice rosewood piano played that patriotic piece of music,

John Brown's body lies mould'ring in the grave.

After which the Buttonville B. B. Society of Buttonville Commonwealth of Massachusetts, adjourned till next Thursday, when I am going again if they don't find out that Squiggles is

That horrid,

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF A NEW STYLE.

The Beechers are natural growths of Puritanism—fair samples of that intolerance of belief, which finally loses itself in impracticableness and unchristian ideas or rank infidelity. They have ceased to possess Christ's religion, and are full of Beecher religion, altogether a different compound, a thing as changeable as the hues of a chameleon or an Abolitionist's notion of what constitutes loyalty.

Ward Beecher's church has been for years little better than a Sunday warehouse for the inculcation and dissemination of the blackest sort of Black Republicanism. Throngs have been in weekly attendance to applaud and laugh on Sundays as they would hardly do on week days. He has grown popular—has proved a "paying card" for the trustees, who invested money in building the church in which he holds forth—has received great salaries—purchased lands, and is one of a few of the clerical lights whose names figure in the income lists. He affects oddity, and takes real delight in startling old fashioned christians with new notions of liberality toward worldly pleasures—advocates billiards, occasionally "punches" a few himself, and drives as fast a horse as any jockey in Brooklyn.

This Yankee christian has a sister, not "to fortune and fame unknown"—she has written books—books in which the "colored cusses" whose ancestral stock once worshipped fetishes in Africa, figure as heroes and heroines, and wherein men, of Southern birth and white faces are "no better than they should be," viewed from the imaginative Beecher's stand-point. The name of the female, since she ceased to be a Beecher, is Harriet B. Stowe. She had some peculiar notions, religiously which she has given to the world lately. Writing of Sunday schools, she says:

"If the different churches of a city would erect a building where there should be a billiard table, one or two nine-pin alleys, a reading-room, garden and grounds for ball-playing, or innocent lounging, they would do more to keep their young people from the ways of sin, than a Sunday School."

How do some of our good Lacrosse admirers of, and believers in, the Beecher stock like these recommendations? Which of the religious denominations in our city will take the necessary steps for the erection of such a building as Uncle Tom's Harriet recommends as a suitable auxilary establishment for a well conducted Sunday school?

Under the progressive ideas of Puritanism we may expect to hear some of our modern divines announce from the pulpit, after a fervent prayer, that at the close of the services himself and the Superintendent of Sunday school, will play the deacons a four handed game of billiards, of five hundred points, for a new Bible; or hear one minister challenge another to roll him a string of ten pins for a new contribution box! It will be a startling novelty for a little time perhaps, to see a champion bat suspended over the pulpit of the religious shop, boasting the best nine at base ball, among those who go to Zion by the Beecher route.

If this system of keeping "young people from the ways of sin" is to come into general use—if billiard rooms and nine-pin alleys are suitable adjuncts for the Sunday school, it certainly seems to us that a first class saloon should also be thought of. After billiard and nine pins, "drinks all around" would be the thing, and afford a means for inculcating fine moral sentiments, religious toasts, and pious maxims. New converts should pay for the "celestial cock-tails," "evangelical juleps," or "angelic Tom and Jerry." Whenever a minister received a "raise of wages" he should "stand the whiskey"—and appropriations for benevolent purposes could be decided by rubbers at "peak-nuckle," or "seven up." Is there anything more improper or out of character in these suggestions, than in the ideas advocated by Mrs. Stowe.

The fiendish character of the religious precepts inculcated by New England fanatics has driven from Sunday schools and churches hundreds and thousands, and it is by such artifices as those suggested above, that the blood-thirsty bigots seek to fill up their ranks and kindle a new interest in their pernicious system, borrowing of their father, the devil, some of his chief attractions. It is not at all out of character for New England, but will seem to those not living in the "brain of the Republic," (as the egotists term their narrow-minded section,) a little out of character to yoke the temples of the Living God with billiard rooms and nine-pin alleys. What will be the next freak of Beecher christianity?—Lacrosse Democrat.

PERT ANSWER.—Some years ago the best pilot belonging to Boston was named James Tilley. In his youth he had met with an accident which had caused him to become badly humpbacked. He was a genial sort of a man, much liked, and was always called upon to pilot ships-of-war out of the harbor. One day he took out a British frigate; and, as he was leaving the ship, a pompous officer on board called out,—

"I say, old fellow, what have you got on your back?"

"Bunker Hill!" replied Tilley. "Perhaps you have heard of that place before."

"TOM, who did you say your friend B. married?" "Well, he married forty thousand dollars—I forgot her other name."

THE SUMMIT OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS

A correspondent making a tour of the Rocky Mountains, speaking of the beauty of the snow-flowers and the grandeur of the scenery, says:

Another quarter of an hour, and the steeps fell back in front, leaving a lovely Alpine meadow, dotted with clumps of pine, the vivid green of its turf sprinkled with snowy star-flowers, and the creek of icy crystal winding through it.

I was delighted when Mr. Byers gave the word to unsaddle. It was barely three quarters of a mile, he said, to the summit of the Pass. Whether we would cross was still a doubtful matter, and before attempting it both beasts and men must be fed.—The former were turned loose to graze at will, with their long lariats dragging after them; the latter unhooked the cups from their button-holes, opened the coffee-bags, cut the ham with hunting knives, and partook of the biscuits which were not sufficiently "sad." The water of the brook was so intensely cold that it almost made one scream. Yet immediately out of and through it grew a flower so purely beautiful that we all cried out with admiration on discovering it. Out of a ring of broadly ovate leaves (under the water) rose a straight stem, twelve to fifteen inches in height, crowned at the top with a cluster of dark crimson velvet flowers, about the size and with the rich mealy bloom of the polyanthus. It is called, here, the 'Alpine primrose,' but I know of neither cowslip or primrose that will compare with it. The odor is very peculiar, resembling that of Russian leather. Here is a treasure for our florists.

While we took our lunch and rested our bones, Mr. Byers and White discussed the passage of the mountains. Directly in front of us a depression in the fir-clad ridge indicated the summit of the Pass, on either side of which bald, snowy peaks rose considerably above the timber line. White had crossed the range last week, with a drove of twenty-two Government horses; but he had gone considerably to the northward of the Pass, in order to avoid the snows. It was a question whether we should re-open the old trail, or follow his example and climb the frightful looking steep on our right to a point beyond the timber. Being a green hand, I said nothing but felt relieved when the Pass was selected, for the snows had been melting very rapidly, and I was convinced that we could falsify the predictions of our friends.

The horses were saddled, the mules repacked, and we set out upon our uncertain adventure. There was now all around us, some inches, even, lay on the meadow; and even where it had melted, the soil was elastic, treacherous bog, that we did not venture to ride. On all sides rills came rushing down, uprooted trees barred the way, or pools of black mud had collected. It was impossible to follow the trail, although we could trace it by the marks of the shovels. Slowly, in single file, stooping every two minutes to lean upon our horses' necks and gasp for breath, spattered with mud and wet with snow-water, we climbed through the forests, taking heart with the knowledge that this was our last hard pull. The trees rapidly grew thinner, the roaring rills became noiseless threads of water, the snow-drifts over-lapped each other and must be waded, and then—the steep suddenly flattened and a keen wind swept over the summit of the Pass.

It is a sharp crest, with not ten yards between the opposite declivities. Here there was an open space covered with bunch grass among the fields of snow. We were just at the limit of timber, a little more than 11,000 feet above the level. No general panorama of the range is visible, but there are inclosed views to the east and west.—Behind us a sweep of bleak, frosty summit, too near, (apparently) too hard and sharp to be beautiful. Before us, far away over the deeps of endless dark green forest, a grand Alpine range,

"Lifting there
A thousand shadow-penciled valleys
And snowy dells in a golden air."

Still further, thirty or forty miles behind it, arose two great snowy pyramids, evidently beyond the North Peak, and not inferior to Mont Blanc. This view was superior in all elements of simplicity to anything I had ever seen since entering the mountains.

RAYMOND PHOTOGRAPHS THE JACOBINS.

Henry J. Raymond, the editor of the New York Times, who has been forced from his support of the President by the clamors of the Radicals, but a few weeks ago published the following pen-picture of the Radical wing of the Republican party. The fidelity of the picture is so striking, that no one can mistake the originals of the different portraits.

"And more powerful for mischief than all of these combined, were commissioned officers whose official record was bad. * * With no higher views of patriotic duty while the great conflict was going on, than personal aggrandizement, they have no higher conception of honor and right as political partisans now that the the strife is over.

But here is what Raymond says of the Radicals:

"It has been the misfortune of the Republican party that so many of its adherents have sought—as it were purposely—to make it appear in the character of a sectional disunion organization. A class of camp followers, thrown out of employment by the termination of hostilities—men who suffered neither in purpose nor in property while the war lasted—have made themselves especially conspicuous as agents of discord and sectional malice during the past eighteen months. Some of them were unnecessary but unscrupulous attaches of Provost Marshals' offices; others were speculators in cotton and various descriptions of loose Southern property; yet another set had a stock of Northern philanthropy, in which they dealt, wherever paying prices were to be had; and, more powerful for mischief than any or all these combined, were COMMISSIONED OFFICERS WHOSE OFFICIAL RECORD WAS BAD. The accession of thousands of such men to any party could only be an injury, and to the extent to which they might be able to mould its policy—A CALAMITY. With no higher views of patriotic duty while the great conflict was going on, higher conception of honor and of right as political partisans now that the strife is over. And whatever error of judgement there may be chargable against the President or against Conservative Republicans who have given his policy an independent support, there has been nothing in the whole record of the Republican party so fatal to its permanent influence and power as its association with the tribe of mischief-makers whose fortunes were broken when the armies of the Confederacy surrendered to Grant. Their baneful influence has not only been felt here in their native haunts, where they only preach malice and uncharitableness a' will, but it spreads itself all over the country, and is felt, to-day, more than anywhere else, in the subjugated States; stirring up strife between master and servant, and keeping alive the flames of discord between sections and races."

JOKE ON BOB.

Stephen C—— was a jovial soul, and hesitated not to play a trick on any one. Among his acquaintances was a young man and a young lady, both of whom stammered very badly. They were unacquainted with each other.

Bob F——, the young man alluded to, was quite sensitive, and to think that any one was making fun of his defect made him frequently fly into a passion. It was Stephen's fortune to meet them at a party, and he soon determined on a joke.

"Miss Sue," said he, approaching his lady friend, "may I have the pleasure of introducing to you one of my acquaintances, a worthy young man?"

"Cer-cer-cer-cer-tainly, sir."

Away he started for Bob F——.

"Bob, old fellow, here is a nice girl. I want to introduce you. Come on."

"Does she taw-taw-talk?"

"Yes—like blazes."

So off they started and soon approached the side of the lady. Stephen introduced them and immediately withdrew to one side that he might see how they would manage each other, when his ears were greeted with the following conversation:

"How are you enjoy-joy-joying your-self-th-th-this ev-evening, marm?"

it is ra-ra-rather warm."

Bob's brow contracted; but he restrained his feelings and continued:

"I pre-r-r-presume you are acquainted with most of those pr-present."

"Ye-ye-yes, sir, with all, be-be-believe," said she, smiling."

But that smile ruined her forever in Bob's estimation, for, hastily rising, he exclaimed,

"By th-th-thunder! ma-ma-dam, if that is the wa-wa-way you make f-f-fun of a f-f-fellow's infi-firmities, you may go to gr-grass."

Stephen laughed immoderately all the time, and was subsequently called to account for the trick; but his good nature drove away all bad feelings.

A WOMAN'S FIGHT WITH INDIANS.—The following is from the Tehama California, Observer: "L. Hessick, who runs a pack train between Red Bluff and Hay-fork of Trinity, gives the particulars of a daring exploit of a lady. Mrs. Sarah Donelson, formerly a resident of Red Bluff, is living in a log house on the trail, with her children and her father. A few days ago her father went out hunting stock, and Mrs. Donelson was looking after her poultry a short distance from the house. Suddenly five Indians made their appearance. Mrs. Donelson started for the house, and was intercepted by two Indians. Throwing them from her, a third caught her by the shoulder. She knocked him down, and reaching the house in safety, barred the door. The Indians rested one or more rifles on the window levelled at the woman, who approached them, took down her father's rifle and returned the fire of the Indians through the apertures or 'chinks' of the log house. On attempting to cock her gun Mrs. Donelson found that the thumb of her right hand had been shot away by an Indian bullet, but using her left hand she soon had the pleasure of knowing that her would-be murderers had, retreated, whether with whole hides or not she could not tell. Muscle, courage and self-possession won a victory—one against five, and that one a woman. We challenge the State to exhibit an instance in Indian fighting wherein a woman has acquitted herself more creditably."

AN absent minded professor, in going out of the gateway of his college, ran against a cow. In the confusion of the moment, he raised his hat and exclaimed, "I beg your pardon madame." Soon after he stumbled against a lady in the street; in sudden recollection of his former mishap, he called out, "Is that you again, you brute?"

WHY is twice ten the same as twice eleven? Because twice ten is twenty and twice eleven is twenty-two.

WHEN is literary work like smoke? When it comes in volumes.

BEWARE!

The Mongrels have succeeded, for some years past, in foisting upon the unsuspecting, certain pretended neutral newspapers, such as the Pittsburg Chronicle, the Philadelphia North American, the Baltimore American, and other sheets of a similar character. As this is the time of year when subscriptions for these incendiary publications are taken, we desire to put our readers on their guard, so that they may not be imposed upon. There is not a more rabid Disunion Negro journal published in the United States, than the Baltimore American and the North American, of Philadelphia. As for the Pittsburg Chronicle, it is a cowardly concern, which strikes the Democracy whenever it dares, and should be shunned accordingly. If people would take a good neutral paper, let them subscribe to the Baltimore Sun, or the Philadelphia Ledger; if they desire a sound poiltical city paper, a white man's journal, let them take the Harrisburg Patriot & Union, the Philadelphia Age, or the Baltimore Gazette, or Transcript. The Patriot & Union especially should be patronized. It is the central organ of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and its weekly issue is really able and useful. Of course, we think every body should first subscribe to the BEDFORD GAZETTE; but after the GAZETTE, we recommend the Weekly Patriot & Union. The Mongrels are getting up clubs for the N. Y. Tribune. Our friends should not allow themselves to be thus outgeneraled. An antidote to Greeley's poison must be circulated. Get every body you can to take the GAZETTE, and the rest of your kind to subscribe to the Weekly Patriot & Union. Now is the time to extend the usefulness of Democratic papers. Let every working Democrat interest himself in this behalf.

SPOLIA OPIMA.

"When Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war!" When Mongrel meets Mongrel, then comes the tug for the spoils. The latter is the rendering of the old proverb, as applied to modern American politics. The mixed and motley set that have controlled the government during the last six years, (having, during their ascendancy, fought for the offices alone, shaped the legislation of the country only to the end that they might retain the fat things which attach to official station, used the machinery of war, the muscle and blood and life-breath of the devoted soldier, merely to secure the emoluments of office, and having determined even to keep the Union dissolved to maintain themselves in power) are just now engaged in parceling out among themselves the fruits, the spolia opima, of their ill-gotten victory. In Pennsylvania the struggle among them is for the U. S. Senatorship, soon to become vacant by the expiration of the term of Senator Cowan. Curtin, Cameron, Stevens, Forney, Grow and Morehead are all aspirants for this position. The struggle between them is growing fierce and bitter. Especially is this the case as between Curtin and Cameron. These two worthies are now busily engaged in plotting and counter-plotting against each other, and the whole Mongrel nest is in a buzz of excitement over the fight between them. Now, were we a Mongrel, our sympathy would be decidedly with Curtin. He is the meanest man in the whole lot, and, therefore, would best represent his party. It is true, we might mistrust his fidelity, for he has betrayed his own party several times and the Democracy once, during the last six years. But that only proves his meanness, and, therefore, his fitness to be a Mongrel U. S. Senator. What the Mongrels themselves think about him, remains to be seen.

Curtin or Cameron, Cameron or Curtin,

THE ELECTION IN ALLEGANY COUNTY, MARYLAND.

We are informed that in a number of the districts of Allegany county, Md., at the late election, the judges refused to receive the votes of persons not registered in 1865, declining to be governed by the registration made by the registrars appointed by Gov. Swann. By this process, some three or four hundred conservative voters were disfranchised in that county. Besides, in some districts the radical mongrels had armed bands at the polls and thus prevented conservatives from approaching to deposit their ballots. Still, with all the force and fraud against them, the friends of the Constitution and laws, made a good fight. McCulloh, Conservative, was elected to the House of Delegates, and though the Judges gave certificates to the remainder of the mongrel candidates, their seats will be contested, and we doubt not, the offices into which they have been foisted by force and fraud, given to their conservative opponents. We make the following extract from a letter received from a friend in Cumberland, which shows that Col. Spates, conservative, is really elected to the Senate, instead of Ohr, mongrel, but has been counted out by the Judges:—"The Radicals have all had notices served upon them, that their right to the offices to which they claim to have been elected, would be contested. Colonel Spates, conservative candidate for the Senate, took four men, two radicals and two conservatives, to the Clerk's office, last Saturday, and demanded the tickets, which they counted, and discovered that the Judges had made a mistake, the count giving Spates a majority of 35, instead of his opponent, Ohr, 12, as the radical Judges had certified."

REV. DR. JAMES PRESTLEY, Pastor of the Second United Presbyterian Church of Pittsburg, has been tried by a court of his church, on the several charges of "Unkind, cruel and violent treatment of his wife and family," "Using vulgar and profane language" and "Infidelity to his marriage vow," and has been found guilty of all the charges. He was deposed from the ministry and excommunicated from the church.—Prestley was one of the preachers that went about haranguing Abolition gatherings and was one of the props of the Mongrel party in Allegheny county. "Time sets all things even."

WENDELL PHILLIPS says that President Johnson must be impeached because of "his sins against the whole essence and spirit of the hour." If Wentheil (as a German friend of ours calls him) thinks essence and spirit won't flow freely enough, now-a-days, he ought to pitch into Congress, not the President.

HARRISBURG.

Hartranft makes a Forward Movement and Falls Back---Troubles of Gov. "No Prefix"---Curtin electioneers for the U. S. Senatorship---The Speakership of the House, etc.

Correspondence of the Bedford Gazette.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 26, 1866.

MR. EDITOR:—Your correspondent, after a silence perhaps too long protracted, has concluded once more to furnish you with a few items from the State Capital. Quite a sensation was produced here among the Mongrel politicians, a few days ago, by the announcement that Gen. Hartranft had resigned the Auditor-Generalship to take a Colonelcy in the regular army, to which, it was said, the President had appointed him. It seemed strange that so high-toned a patriot as Hartranft would stoop so low as to accept an appointment at the hands of the infamous author of "My Policy," and the upshot has proved that rumor had done the gallant General injustice, for, it seems, he has not resigned at all, but intends to hold on to his position "on the hill." There are those who still say (envious and malicious ones) that the General had advanced his pickets toward Washington, with the intention of laying siege to the White House, but not feeling sure of his base, and fearing that some other eager patriot might occupy his fortification at Harrisburg, should he evacuate, he concluded to fall back upon that position and hold it to the last. Brave man! How could the State do without him?

Our newly elected (?) Governor, he of the "no prefix," is in great tribulation just about this time, in regard to his appointment of Cabinet Officers. A number of "loyal" men are willing to serve as Attorney General, Secretary of the Commonwealth, &c., &c. In fact their willingness to sacrifice themselves in this way, is pressed so unremittingly upon the Governor's attention, that he is in quite a quandary as to how he will succeed in rewarding their disinterested patriotism. There's Frank. Jordan, of your town, would like to be Attorney General; but John Scott, of Huntingdon, wants a little pay for services rendered, and claims that nothing but that position will remunerate him for turning his back upon his old friends, and as Geary naturally sympathizes with renegades, John stands a good chance of—"passing over Jordan." Outside pressure, however, may yet put your townsman all right. But between these two (and several more) our Democratic Governor, "without prefix or affix," is in a terrible stew. He "could be happy with either, if t'other dear charmer were away!" but how is he to satisfy both? Poor Geary! he is in the hands of the Philistines, and he cannot now see his way as clear as Samson could when he was asked to be led to the pillars of the temple. Sic transit gloria gubernatoris!

Gov. Curtin is busily engaged in electioneering for the Mongrel caucus nomination for U. S. Senator. Strange as it may seem, he is apparently the strongest candidate spoken of at present. Gen. Cameron is also on the tapis, and I will be greatly mistaken if he doesn't give His Excellency some trouble, before the latter reaches the vacant chair of Edgar Cowan. Curtin has had his fugleman, McClure, to call a county convention in Franklin county, for the purpose of instructing for him (Curtin) for U. S. Senator. Stambaugh, the member from Franklin, and McConaughy, the Senator from the Franklin district, are friends of Cameron, and Curtin took this plan to tie their hands. It remains to be seen whether they will tamely submit to this sort of work. Curtin is just about the meanest man in the whole "Mongrel" party, having deceived everybody that ever placed confidence in him, and I, therefore, think him the very best representative of that party that could be sent to the U. S. Senate. Forney and Stevens too, are aspirants for this position. Apropos of this, it is related that a certain politician visited the latter some time ago, upon the subject of transferring some of his votes to one or another of his competitors. Old Thad. opened out on his visitor as follows: "Forney! No one ever trusted him except Buchanan! Curtin! why, he is the greatest liar in the State, and as to Cameron, he is the greatest rascal! Now, what would you have me do?" A lovely set, are they not?

The U. S. Senator question slightly involves the minor one of Speaker of the House. Col. Quay, of Beaver, is the Curtin candidate, whilst W. B. Waddell, Esq., of Chester, is put forward by the Cameronians. Waddell is the better man of the two, and was really the leader of his party in the last House. It is probable, however, that Quay will be the man. But enough for this time from LEX.

LETTER FROM HOMESPUN.

NEAR CHENEYSVILLE, Nov. 26, 1866.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—I am quite relieved to find that the black-guard who has been slandering the people, as well as the topography, of our good old Southampton, under the nom de plume of "Pilgrim," is not the same who, last year, wrote for your paper, in objurgation of the kinky-headed lunatics who wouldn't take passage in his "car of progress." I had been informed that "Pilgrim" is identical with your "Uncle Toby" of last year, but could not believe that the latter had fallen so far from grace as to be capable of so villainous a calumny upon his own friends and neighbors as that uttered in his first letter. Hence my heart was gladdened when I saw, in the GAZETTE, a repudiation and condemnation of that calumnious letter over the proper signature of the veritable "Uncle Toby" himself. I was rejoiced at this, because I could not bear to think of one whose gentle calling requires him to reprove the back-biter and slanderer, and who professes to be a minister of Him Who when He was "reviled, reviled not again," thus dipping his pen "in the gall of bitterness," and striving to blacken the good name of those who never entertained even a harmful thought of him. The idea of such wanton malignity was so revolting to me that I could not for a moment, connect it with the lamb-like character of our gentle "Uncle Toby," ruminating in the "Shadow of the Mountain," or riding quietly and inoffensively in his "Car of Progress." It could not be possible, I thought, that the Fiend himself, had insinuated his loathsome shape under so fair an exterior. I thrust the suspicion from me, and almost hated myself for being so ungenerous as to entertain it for a moment. I am convinced, however, of one thing, viz: "Pilgrim" is not a resident of this township. People here are not taught to spell the word canvass (when applied to a political campaign) with only one s; hence "Pilgrim" can't be a Southamptonian. By the way, don't you think that "Pilgrim," after spelling canvass, with but one s, would spell his own name thus, As? But it makes very little difference where this contemptible calumniator lives. The poison he intends for others, will only kill himself. Let the viper blow. His fangs will soon be the trophy of the friends of HOMESPUN.

HANDSOME GAINS.—Although the Democracy of this State, during the past six years, had to encounter Satan and his agents, in the shape of war, provost marshals, sneaks, spies, internal and external foes, forts, prisons and even death, they have, after overcoming all this opposition, increased their vote from 230,000 to 290,000—just 60,000; while our enemies, with all these elements to favor them, have increased from 262,000 to 307,000—or only about 45,000. If Democrats grow in this manner while the soil is tilled by our enemies and in time of war, what is there to prevent an increase of a hundred fold in time of peace? The Democratic party dead! No, sir-ee. It will whip the white and black Republicans combined the next time.—Clearfield Republican.

PERIODICALS.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.—This widely circulated and popular journal of the Industrial Arts and Sciences, enters its twenty second year, on the first of January next, and the publishers propose to signalize the occasion by enlarging it to the size of the most costly Scientific Journals of Great Britain, without, however, increasing the subscription price. The Scientific American is the organ of the inventors and artisans of America. It publishes, officially, every patent granted by the Government Patent office, and each number contains the weekly issue of Patent Claims, with copious notices of new inventions, and able reviews of foreign inventions and discoveries in every department of science. It also contains numerous engravings of new inventions, tools, implements &c. Terms $3 per annum; $1.50 for six months; $1 for four months; clubs of ten and upward, $2,50 each. Address Munn & Co., 37 Park Row, New York city.

3,000 PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS.—The new and beautiful edition of Webster's Illustrated Unabridged Dictionary, besides a number of other valuable Premiums, will be given by the proprietors of The Sunday-School Times to any one who will solicit subscribers to their paper. With the first of January, 1867, a new $600 Prize Serial is to be puplished in the Times, which will form a special attraction. The Columbia Republican says, "One dollar and a half cannot be invested to better advantage in any family, or by any teacher, than in subscribing for this paper. It is full of original matter, and we cannot speak of it in too high terms of commendation." A Descriptive List of a number of attractive works that are to be given as Premiums, also sample copies of the paper, will be sent free on early application to the publishers of The Sunday-School Times, Philadelphia.

THE DEMOCRATIC ALMANAC FOR 1867.—This invaluable compendium will contain, besides the usual matter of all almanacs, full and official returns of all the elections held this year, compared with previous years, the most important acts of Congress, President Johnson's Veto Messages, Lists of members of both the old and new Congress, and statistical and other information indispensable to every politician, farmer, merchant and mechanic. The great feature will be a complete list of all arbitrary arrests made under the Lincoln dinasty. The Almanac will be ready by January 1st., 1867. Single copies, 20 cents; six copies, $1,00; fourteen copies, $2,00, postage paid. Address Van Evrie, Horton & Co., No. 162 Nassau st., New York.

NEW PAPER.—John H. Keatley Esq. has purchased the material for the establishment of a new paper in this place, the initial number of which will be issued in two or three weeks. It is, we learn, to be called the Central Record, and will be devoted to the dissemination of temperance and literature. Considering the high price of [illegible] and everything else appertaining to the printing business, the undertaking is rather a bold one; but if ability, energy, and perseverance will put it through, Mr. K. is bound to succeed. We wish him much success.—Holidaysburg Standard.

THE METEORS.—Prof. Loomis, of Yale College, has written a letter, in which he makes out that the stars did not make so complete a fiasco on the 13th and 14th instant as has been supposed. On Tuesday morning six hundred and ninety-six shooting stars were counted in five hours, and on Wednesday morning eight hundred and eighty-one were counted. To be sure, most of them were invisible to the naked eye, but still they were from six to seven times more numerous than on ordinary nights. Prof. Loomis concludes, however, that it was not much of a shower after all.

"The Amendments."

The North has pronounced for this amendment with such a degree of unanimity, that we can see no hope for the settlement of our political troubles, and the admission of the South to the right of representation in Congress, but in its adoption.—N. Y. Times.

The Times is mistaken. One election does not finally settle a question in this country. A decision at the polls is not irrevocable, but granting it, we do not think that the late elections prove that the majority of the Northern people favor the constitutional amendment; they do not prove that that demand may not be reconsidered. It is not just to enact an ex post facto law. It is not just to invite a people to ostracize their leading citizens. It is not just to prescribe precedent conditions to the exercise of rights conferred by the Constitution, and if the Southern people decline to acquiesce in any such injustice, and make another appeal to the sense of fair dealing of the North, it does not follow that the latter will continue to do injustice in the future because they have been betrayed into it in the past.

The unanimity of which the Times speaks amounts to this: that in a poll of six hundred thousand votes in Pennsylvania, for instance, the Radicals have a majority of 17,000. Now, every sensible man knows that the election was not carried in Pennsylvania or elsewhere by a fair argument of the constitutional amendment, but by an incessant exasperating appeal to the passions. The bloody horrors of the late war were recalled. The costly preparations and vast expenditures of the contest were dwelt upon, with every magnifying detail, except that of the gigantic swindling of political contractors. The dark crime of treason was painted in its blackest, most revolting colors. The loss of fathers and sons, and brothers and husbands, was aggravated by passionate rhetoric and vindictive phrases. The mournful memories of the hospital, the sad tragedies of the prison, were set forth with every harrowing detail of sorrow and agony. The defiant language of a bold, high spirited foe, nerved to desperation, uttered throughout the contest, was reproduced in every variety of provoking presentation, and the spirit of these same people when they laid down their arms, was grossly and persistently represented as one of insolent demand. But the American people are incapable of continued injustice. They will respond to the claims of fairness and constitutional rights. The Radicals may rejoice in their brief hour of triumph, but the reaction of conservative patriotism and of a catholic nationality will ere long assert itself and the South be restored to its wonted place in the national legislature.—National Intelligencer.

WHERE'S THE NIGGER?—A Radical sheet, the Tamaqua Journal, says:

"We have had the Republican victory—now where's the "Nigger?"

Thereupon the Bellefonte Watchman "goes in" at the following rapid rate:

"Go to your store and you get from eighteen to twenty-five cents worth of nigger in every yard of muslin you buy; from ten to fifteen cents of nigger in every yard of calico your wife and children use; from six to eight dollars worth of nigger in each barrel of flour your family consumes; twenty-five cents worth of nigger in each pound of coffee you purchase; from eight to twelve cents worth of nigger in every pound of sugar you buy to sweeten it; you'll find a small bit of nigger in your box of matches, and considerable nigger in your plug of tobacco. You can eat nothing, wear nothing, see nothing, taste nothing or have nothing, that is not more or less affected by the miserable niggerism that has controlled the country since "Old Abe" left Springfield for Washington."

We reckon, after this burst, the Tamaqua fellow won't "come to time."

ATTEMT AT BURGLARY.—Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning last, an attempt was made to make a burglarious entrance into an outhouse belonging to Mr. C. Boerner, situate on the street adjoining his residence, in this borough, the purpose being to rob the house, which contained quite a quantity of flour, corn, meat, &c. The thief had bored a number of holes through the shutter of one of the windows, making sufficient aperture to admit his hand; through this he had attempted to loosen the fastening of the window; but, finding himself unable to do so had bored another hole through the weatherboarding near the fastening. At this point it is probable he became alarmed and gave up the attempt. Mr B will give a handsome reward for the detection of the thief.

The same night the stable of Mr. F. Fixen, a short distance out of town, was entered, and a horse saddle and bridle taken out (doubtless by the same party or parties, for the purpose of carrying away the expected booty), and after having been used, the horse was turned loose, and together with saddle and bridle were found in the morning near Mr. Fixen's stable. The thieves had also taken a pane out of the window of Mr. Peightel's wagon shop, by which means they had been enabled to extract a brace and some half dozen bits, which had doubtless been used in attempting the entrance into Mr. Boerner's flour house. —Fulton Democrat.

MORE than half of the obstacles in your path are like a rotten stump in the woods, which a timid man takes for a ghost, and runs away. A brave man walks up to it, and finds it to be what it is. Never be assailed and unnerved by what is said about risks and difficulties and competitions. Never retreat into a narrow and obscure walk, with its only one chance of success and usefulness, as if it were the safer for that. Push forward, if you have the common consciousness of ability, into the great thoroughfares, where, though a hundred chances of success and usefulness should fail, a hundred chances are left.—James Walker.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS, are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

PREPARED OIL OF PALM AND MACE for PRESERVING, RESTORING, and BEAUTIFYING the HAIR, and is the most delightful and wonderful article the world ever produced.

Ladies will find it not only a certain remedy to Restore, Darken and Beautify the Hair, but also a desirable article for the Toilet, as it is highly perfumed with a rich and delicate perfume, independent of the fragrant odor of the Oils of Palm and Mace.

THE MARVEL OF PERU,

a new and beautiful perfume, which in delicacy of scent, and the tenacity with which it clings to the handkerchief and person, is unequaled.

The above articles for sale by all Druggists and Perfumers, at $1 per bottle each. Sent by express to any address by proprietors,

TO OWNERS OF HORSES AND CATTLE.—TOBIAS' DERBY CONDITION POWDERS are warranted superior to any others, or no pay, for the cure of Distemper, Worms, Bots, Coughs, Hidebound, Colds, &c., in Horses; and Colds, Coughs, Loss of Milk, Black Tongue, Horn Distemper, &c., in Cattle. These Powders were formerly put up by Simpson I. Tobias, son of Dr. Tobias, and, since his death, the demand has been so great for them, that Dr. Tobias has continued to manufacture them. They are perfectly safe and innocent; no need of stopping the working of your animals. They increase the appetite, give a fine coat, cleanse the stomach and urinary organs; also increase the milk of cows. Try them, and you will never be without them. Hiram Woodruff, the celebrated trainer of trotting horses, has used them for years, and recommends them to his friends. Col. Philo P. Bush, of the Jerome Race Course, Fordham, N. Y., would not use them until he was told of what they are composed, since which he is never without them. He has over 20 running horses in his charge, and for the last three years he has used no other medicine for them. He has kindly permitted me to refer any one to him. Over 1,000 other references can be seen at the depot. Sold by Druggists and Saddlers. Price 25 cents per box. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—BEST STRENGTHENING PLASTER IN THE WORLD. ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS resolve and assuage pain by calling forth the acrid humors from parts internal to the skin and general circulation—thus, in many cases, positively evaporating the disease.

JAMES LULL, M. D.

There is nothing equal, in the way of a plaster, to the Porous Plaster of Mr. ALLCOCK. Everything is pleasant about them. They are the plaster of the day, and a fit type of our present advancement in science and art. In Asthma, Cough, Kidney Affections, Gout, Rheumatism, and local deep-seated pains, they afford permanent relief.

J. F. JOHNSON, M. D., on "Topical Remedies."

From a personal knowledge of these plasters, we can state that they are decidedly preferable to any other in use. Wherever relief is to be obtained by the use of a plaster, we should recommend them. A. INGRAHAM, M.D., Ed. N. Y. Mentor.

PAY THE PRINTER!

We have just sent a number of bills to persons indebted to us for job work and advertising. This kind of work is always intended to be cash, but we have waited for months on some of it and for years on others. We must have these bills paid. Had we no debts of our own, we might give a hundred years' grace to those who owe us. But we must pay our debts, and, hence, we are compelled to collect from those who are indebted to us. The books of B. F. Meyers are also unsettled and must be closed up. We are driven to sending bills to all, irrespective of persons, and we hope that we will not be compelled to resort to any thing more stringent. But we must have our books squared up, and a word to the wise is sufficient.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—QUARTER SESSIONS.—The following cases were disposed of at the last Court of Quarter Sessions for this county:

Com. vs. A. J. Dishong and Elizabeth Dishong. Indictment for Nuisance on oath of W. M. Earnest. Palmer and Cessna for Commonwealth, Kimmell and Lingenfelter and Hall, for Defence. Verdict, not guilty.

Com. vs. Jon. Feightner, Rachael Bush and Chas. Bush. Indictment for Adultery, &c. Spang, Sharpe and Russell, for Commonwealth, Kimmell and Lingenfelter and Cessna for Defendants. Verdict for the Defendants.

Com. vs. Frank Gordon and Moore Barks. Assault and battery on oath of Nehemiah Fleegle. Meyers & Dickerson, and Kimmell, for prosecutor, Spang and Keagy for Defendants. Defendant Gordon sentenced to pay a fine of $5.00 and costs of prosecution. Defendant Barks not arrested.

Com. vs. W. S. Fletcher. Larceny on oath of Jacob Hite. Def't pleads guilty and Court sentence him to one year and three months solitary confinement in the Western Penitentiary, and that he pay one dollar fine and costs of suit.

Com. vs. Peter Koons. Assault and battery, on oath of W. H. Lewis. Verdict, not guilty.

Com. vs. Jacob Dean. Assault and surety of the peace, on oath of Jacob Smith. Verdict, not guilty.

Com. vs. Geo. Hook and John T. Rice. Assault and battery on oath of Harriet E. Zimmerla. Palmer, Spang and Geo. A. Smith for Com., Cessna for Def'ts. Verdict, not guilty, but Def'ts to paycosts of prosecution.

Common Pleas.—F. D. Beegle vs. Daniel Wertz and Joseph Feather.—Ejectment. Spang for Pl'ff, Cessna for Defts. Verdict for Defts.

Wm. Todd vs. David Wolff. Summons Case. (Water Right.) Kimmell, Cessna, Russell and Reed for Pl'ff, Sharpe, Spang and Lingenfelter for Defts. Trial lasted three days, at the end of which time jury returned a verdict for Defendant.

BLACK'S PATENT SLED.—We spoke, last week, of a sled invented by D. A. T. Black, Esq., which runs on wheels, or runners, at the pleasure of the driver, but did not fully note its advantages over the ordinary sled. It can be run, like a wagon, over bridges, bare ground and streams of water; and Mr. Black's improvement will prevent pushing the horses going down steep hills, and sliding to one side on icy places. It saves a great deal of horse labor and prevents the soles of the sled from wearing out. The improvement is equally applicable to sleighs. For further particulars, address D. A. T. Black, Ray's Hill, Bedford co., Pa.

WARNING.—We would again warn careless people of the danger attending a careless handling of Kerosene lamps. Our exchanges are filled with accounts of accidents from this cause by which women, children and servants lose their lives. A lamp upset, and the whole mass of oil instantly ignites, running over everything, and setting fire to the clothing of women and children who may be near. People cannot be too careful in handling coal oil. Lamps occasionally explode, when the oil is permitted to burn low, and such accidents frequently terminate in death.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH.—Why is it that the marriage announcements are immediately followed by the obituary notice in our papers? Does death follow so closely on the footsteps of marriage? Is grief the page that carries the train of happiness? Does the tomb open wide its dark and ponderous jaws beside the nuptial couch? 'Tis the plan of life. The gleeful songs of light and merry hearts to-day, to-morrow will turn to funeral chants, and sorrow and lamentation be heard instead of glad, pealing laughter. We read to-day of our friends' marriage, and wish them joy; to-morrow we see their deaths recorded, and say "peace to their ashes." Our merriest songs are timed by footfalls of death, and the "silver chord is as fragile as a spider's thread, and the "golden bowl" is more brittle than glass.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that James Madara, Esq., manager of Bloomfield Furnace, was thrown from his horse, a few days since, and seriously injured. We have not been informed as to the particulars of the accident.

ASSISTANT ASSESSORS.—We learn from the Bedford Inquirer that Capt. John B. Helm, of this place, John Shuss, of Snake Spring, and John B. Fluke, of Hopewell tp., have been appointed Assistant Assessors of Internal Revenue for this County.

DON'T FRIGHTEN YOUR CHILDREN.—We know that it is a habit with many parents to frighten their children into obedience, by threats of imprisonment in dark rooms, or by picturing some great bugaboo that is ready to carry them off. Little do those who resort to this mode of reasoning (?) with innocent little ones, think of the fearful consequences that may result from such acts. A few days since a bright little lad in Evansville, Indiana, when playing on the steps, was threatened to be shut up in a dark room if he did not go in and stay in the house. The child, frightened, ran in and fell in paroxysms on the floor. He begged his mother not to let the man shut him up, and he would never go on the steps again. He sickened from this fright and never recovered. When conscious he begged his mother to keep the man away and he never would go on the steps again. And when the little fellow was dying he said, "Papa, don't let me die, I never will go on the steps again." We hope this instance may serve as a warning to parents who read the GAZETTE, to be careful how they attempt to frighten their little ones.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We learn from the McConnellsburg papers, that a melancholy accident occurred near that place, a few days ago, which resulted in the death of Miss Laura Hassler, daughter of Maj. John Hassler, Treasurer of Franklin county, and the serious injury of Mrs. Baker, who in company with Miss Hassler and a young lad were driving in a buggy, from Fort Littleton to McConnellsburg. On the summit of Scrub Ridge, the boy alighted from the buggy, when the horse became frightened and ran away, dashing the vehicle to pieces against the rocks on the side of the road, both ladies being violently thrown upon the ground, Miss Hassler receiving injuries which caused her death a few days afterwards. Mrs. Baker was greatly bruised, but was not fatally injured.

BUILD HOUSES.—Our town needs now, more than anything else, an increase of dwelling houses for the people. Many are crowded, two or three families into a house where there should be but one, and rents are only limited by the demand of the landlord. We want small houses that our mechanics and laborers can purchase, and thus put their earnings and savings into a permanent form. If the funds invested in oil speculations had been invested in houses, they could all have been sold at a handsome profit, and the amount re-invested in like manner with a similar result. We call upon our business men to unite and build houses—for each to build one, two or three, as they can spare the means from their business.

A MERITED COMPLIMENT.—We were shown, to-day, a magnificent and costly regalia, of the Order of Odd-Fellows, which was, last week, presented by Bedford Lodge No. 202, to Dr. C. N. Hickok, the District Deputy Grand Master of Bedford County. This is but a just tribute to the Doctor's faithful, and long continued efforts in the cause of Odd-Fellowship. As an advocate of the peculiar principles of the society, the Doctor has few equals, and his numerous public addresses, in this regard, has given him a widely extended reputation. We are glad to record this instance of the appreciation, by his brethren of his services.

SWORN IN.—Robert Steckman, Esq., the newly elected Sheriff, has been sworn in and is now engaged in discharging the duties of his office. Bob will make an efficient officer. The retiring Sheriff, Capt. Aldstadt, goes out of office, with the respect of all who had official transactions with him, and we can say for him, that he was a thoroughgoing and trusty officer. Michael Diehl has been installed as Poor Director. An honest man is "old Mike," and the public can rest assured that he will be true to their interests.

COUNTY PAPERS.—Postmasters should bear in mind, for their advantage as well as that of the local press, that for every county paper delivered by them to subscribers they are entitled to retain of the post office funds ten and one-half cents per year. It is for their interest, as well as for that of the publisher, that the county papers be preferred, since there is no trouble in making collections or keeping accounts thereof, as on papers printed out of the county, the commission on which will not average more than from six to eight cents a year.

COMPLETION OF THE SAND PATCH TUNNEL.—We learn that the Sand Patch Tunnel, on the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad, has at last been cut through. It is located in Larimer township, Somerset county. It is 4,700 feet in length, is 22 feet wide and 19 feet high. The length of the tunnel on the Penn'a Central, between Cresson and Altoona, is 3,700 feet, just 1,000 less than the length of the Sand Patch.

COUNTERFEIT COIN.—A counterfeit five cent coin of the new nickle issue, is in circulation, and is calculated to deceive the unwary. The counterfeit is remarkably good so far as the die is concerned, but the metal has that greasy appearance common to compounds of pewter and other baser metalic substances. It is very soft and cuts easily like cheese.—Balt. Sun.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The Commissioners have re-fitted and re-furnished the Court House. It is now one of the most comfortable, as well as one of the neatest, Court Houses in the state.

PRESERVING MILK.—An easy way of preserving milk or cream sweet for a long time, or of removing the sourness when it has already come on, is to add to it a small quantity of common soda, pearl ash or magnesia. So it is said.

WE call attention to the advertisement of C. F. Miller & Co., under head of "new advertisements."

ALL IN VAIN.—The attempts to palm off upon the American public the bogus parodies on the leading Paris perfumes, while Phalon's "Night Blooming Cereus," the finest extract for the handkerchief ever produced either here or abroad, is within the reach of every class. Sold everywhere.

EXEMPT.—Dress-makers and milliners will be very glad to know hat from the first day of August, 1866, they are exempt from all taxation, whatsoever. The new law says: "All articles of dress made or trimmed by milliners or dress makers for the wear of women and children, shall also be exempt."

CONVENTION OF SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS.—A Convention of County Superintendents of Common Schools of the State, will be held at Harrisburg on the 4th of December next. It will remain in session three days.

DEER KILLED.—A fine large buck was killed in Jack's corner, a few days ago, by Richard Sullivan, of Hopewell township.

PLENTY—Wild Turkies. Quite a number have been brought to this place within the last two weeks, by our sportsmen.

SEE advertisement of "Snow Powder," in another column.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE MOST POPULAR And best selling Subscription Books published.

We are the most extensive publishers in the United States, (having six houses,) and therefore can afford to sell books cheaper and pay agents a more liberal commission than any other company.

Our books do not pass through the hands of General Agents, (as nearly all other subscription works do,) therefore we are enabled to give our canvassers the extra per cent. which is usually allowed to General Agen'ts. Experienced canvassers will see the advantages of dealing directly with the publishers.

Our series embraces the most popular works on all subjects of importance, and is selling rapidly both North and South.

Old agents, and all others, who want the best paying agencies, will please send for circulars and see our terms, and compare them and the character of our works with those of other publishers.

SNOW POWDER.—Patented May 29, 1866. This is an article for washing without rubbing, except in very dirty places, which will require a very slight rub, and unlike other preparations offered for a like purpose, WILL NOT ROT the clothes, but will leave them much WHITER than ordinary methods, without the usual wear and tear.

It removes grease spots as if by magic, and softens the dirt by soaking, so that rinsing will in ordinary cases entirely remove it.

This powder is prepared in accordance with chemical science, and upon a process peculiar to itself, which is secured by Letters Patent. It has been in use for more than a year, and has proved itself an universal favorite wherever it has been used. Among the advantages claimed are the following, viz:

It saves all the expense of soap usually used on cotton and linen goods.

It saves most of the labor of rubbing, and wear and tear.

Also, for cleaning windows it is unsurpassed.—With one quarter the time and labor usually required it imparts a beautiful gloss and lustre, much superior to any other mode. No water required except to moisten the powder.

Directions with each package.

And can be readily appreciated by a single trial. The cost of washing for a family of five or six persons will not exceed THREE CENTS.

The manufacturers of this powder are aware that many useless compounds have been introduced to the public which have rotted the cloth, or failed in removing the dirt, but knowing the intrinsic excellence of this article, they confidently proclaim it as being adapted to meet a demand which has long existed, and which has heretofore remained unsupplied.

REASONS WHY THE AMERICAN WATCH, MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS., IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle. It is composed of SOLID PLATES. No jar can interfere with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery, (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness, and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanism should be—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG AND ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. All persons who have carried "ancres," "lepines," and "English Patent Levers," are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions, the refuse of foreign factories, which were entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact that after so many years of public trial we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequaled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main building expressly for this branch of our business, and have filled it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for LESS MONEY than foreign watches but we do assert, without fear of contradiction, that for the SAME MONEY our product is incompably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted, and this warrantee is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

THE OLD GUARD, A MONTHLY MAGAZINE, DEVOTED TO

Literature, Science and Art, and the Political Principles of 1776 and 1787.

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

The success of THE OLD GUARD has been as remarkable as it ought to be gratifying to the friends of a true American literature. It has steadily doubled its circulation each year of its publication, and its publishers have found it necessary to annually enlarge it, to meet the full expectations of its patrons, as well as to realize their own ideal of a first-class Family and Literary Magazine, combined with sound political principles. To still farther carry out this design, The Old Guard for 1867 will be printed on new type, and enlarged sixteen additional pages, making in all nearly One Thousand Pages of reading matter yearly for the low price of three dollars! Arrangements have also been made to secure the very best literary talent of the country. We will commence in the January number a thrilling Romance, written expressly for The Old Guard, entitled,

JOSCELYN; A Tale of the Revolution;

By Wm. Gilmore Simms, Esq., of S. C.,

the peer of Cooper and Irving, taking the reader back to the birth of the American principle of government, and introducing him to the rebels of 1776. John Esten Cooke, Esq., of Virginia, author of "Surry of Eagle's Nest," &c., &c., will furnish a series of graphic sketches, entitled "The Battles of Virginia," while our present corps of contributors, with some new ones, will continue to furnish articles, making the Magazine second to none in point of literary attraction and ability.—Politically, The Old Guard will stand in the future as in the past, faithfully guarding the Constitution as it came from the hands of Washington, without acquiescing in any of the subversions, under the title of "amendments." It will be continued upon the grand idea that "all is not lost," while virtue and intelligence remain with any portion of the people.

MISHLER'S BITTERS WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st. Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d. Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

J. W. BRADLEY'S
CELEBRATED PATENT
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!

To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for

J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—☞ none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART.—New Volume begins January, 1866.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:—

London Quarterly,	Revue de deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Pop. Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers' Journal,
Dub. University Magazine,	Edinburg Review,
Art Journal,	London National Rev.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more Fine Steel Engravings—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

TERMS: $5 per year; Single numbers, 50 cents. Five copies, $20.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled

EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.

Single Numbers, 10 cents.
Subscription price $5.00 per year, in advance.
MONTHLY PARTS will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per year, in advance.
CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT.—Subscribers to any of the other periodicals published by TICKNOR AND FIELDS will receive EVERY SATURDAY for $4.00 per year in advance.

TICKNOR & FIELDS, Publishers,

1866! PROSPECTUS 1866!
OF "THE AGE,"
The only Democratic Daily Journal in Philadelphia.—Great Improvements and Great Inducements.—Union, Restoration, and Constitutional Liberty.

The publishers of THE AGE respectfully call attention to the Daily and Weekly issues of their popular journal.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and, Commercial intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters; and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance.—Besides special telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe, brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from the point the steamers first touch

Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $4.50; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, if prepaid.

The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies, one year, $17.50; twenty copies, one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Ten copies, one year, $16.50; twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cts per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, if prepaid.

☞ The Weekly Age will be the great campaign paper of the Democratic Conservative Party of Pennsylvania, and will earnestly support the President in his patriotic efforts in behalf of Union, Restoration and Constitutional Liberty.

☞ The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Please write the name and address plainly, and specify distinctly whether the Daily or Weekly is ordered.

THE NEW YORK NEWS,
The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,
DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of arbitrary power.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness. Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrines must if he entertain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," interstectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisi in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

The only known remedy for

DIABETES,

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGURY OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of

PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY,

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DIURETIC

Is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
ACTS GENTLY,

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL,

See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU. Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar., 10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

SHRINERS BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.

For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now be ore the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is Purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. But owing to its purifying qualities, must do good under any circumstances. Its effects are truly wonderful, soothing, calming, and allaying the most violent coughs, purifying, strengthening and invigorating the whole
